

Stories of Open

The oral history project Stories of Open undertaken by Emily Ford in 2020 aimed to capture, in detail and in their own words, the experiences some librarians, authors, and other stakeholders had with open access. While they have a focus on open peer review, they touch on many other aspects of open, and contain a wealth of detail around the difficulties and successes many have faced.

Read about the experiences of librarians and other stakeholders here

Revision #1

Created 2026-06-05 08:21:30 UTC by Kira Hopkins

Updated 2026-06-05 08:31:01 UTC by Kira Hopkins