Scottish Universities Press (SUP)

Scottish Universities Press (SUP) released its first two OA book titles in 2024, marking a significant milestone in Scotland's academic publishing landscape. They have also unveiled a new open access textbook programme.

Scottish Universities Press: Looking back at 2024

Download and read their books for free:

1. Conversations with Tim Ingold: Anthropology, education and life. By Tim Ingold, Robert Gibb, Philip Tonner and Diego Maria Malara
2. Digital Editing and Publishing in the Twenty-First Century. Edited by James O'Sullivan, Michael Pidd, Michael Kurzmeier, Orla Murphy, Bridgette Wessels and Sophie Whittle.
3. The vow of stability: An ethnography of monastic life. By Richard D.G. Irvine

They also recorded 'fireside chats' with their authors to launch the books. Watch Conversations with Tim Ingold (Tim Ingold and his co-authors, Robert Gibb, Philip Tonner, and Diego Maria Malara, discuss why open access matters and share insights on why they chose SUP and how they found the experience), and Dr. Richard Irvine in conversation with Hannah Whaley and Gillian Daly (Richard covers his experiences of living in a Benedictine monastery, his thoughts on stability and the future of monastic life, and more challenging topics such as sexual abuse).

Read more about Dr. Richard Irvine's book on the University of St Andrews (USTAN) website.

Revision #7
Created 2025-05-28 10:57:36 UTC by Anna Hughes
Updated 2025-06-10 07:45:56 UTC by Anna Hughes